

Mukanova Dinara Adletovna

Candidate of Medical Sciences, associate Professor, general practitioner of the highest qualification category.

In 1992, she graduated with honors from the Semipalatinsk State Medical Institute, Faculty of Medicine.

Work experience:

1992-1996-clinical residency in the specialty "Internal diseases";

1996-1999-full-time postgraduate study at the Department of Clinical Laboratory Diagnostics; in 1997 transferred to the postgraduate study at the Department of Faculty Therapy; in 2001-defense of the candidate's thesis on the topic: "Cerebrovascular aspects of hypertension in the elderly. Questions of treatment optimization";

since 2001, assistant of the Department of Faculty Therapy;

since 2008-Associate Professor of the Department of Internship in Therapy;

since September 1, 2016, she was transferred as an associate professor to the Department of General Medical Training.

On November 1, 2016, she was transferred to the position of head of the Training and Clinical Center of the Semey State Medical University, which was later reorganized into the Department of Simulation Technologies of the NAO " Semey Medical University ".

Currently, he holds the position of Head of the Department of Simulation Technologies.

Specializations in simulation training:

2008 — international training seminar "Integrated training and assessment of clinical competence in medical education", KSMAA;

2011-training at the Israeli Center for Medical Simulations Sheba medical center;

2014 – international training seminar "Training in basic competencies and methodology for developing educational programs based on a competence approach", Astana RCRP of the Ministry of Health of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

2016 — "Development of communication skills of students in clinical disciplines";

2017-training seminar within the educational program "School of Management" – "Fundamentals of corporate governance" and "Modern HR management in the company";

"BLS, Advanced Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation ACLS" and "Emergency Medicine Select Clinical Experience", University of St. Louis, USA, Missouri;

2019 – advanced training cycle "Emergency Care in Cardiology", NAO " Semey Medical University ".